

The Target is Excellent Effort

Every day is a new day!

10

Student exhibits excitement towards learning, and clearly understands how a strong work ethic enhances the educational experience as shown by

ALWAYS:

- Coming to class prepared
- Actively and purposefully participates in the teaching/learning process by both answering and asking quality questions
- Completing all assignments with integrity, following stated directions, and turning them in on time

8,9

Student understands the benefits of a strong work ethic as shown by

USUALLY:

- Coming to class prepared
- Actively and purposefully participating in the teaching/learning process by both answering and asking quality questions
- Completing all assignments with integrity, following stated directions, and turning them in on time

7

Student does not fully understand the benefits of a strong work ethic as shown by

INCONSISTENTLY:

- Coming to class prepared
- Actively and purposefully participating in the teaching/learning process by both answering and asking quality questions
- Completing all assignments with integrity, following stated directions, and turning them in on time

6

Student does not understand the benefits of a strong work ethic as shown by

RARELY:

- Coming to class prepared
- Actively and purposefully participating in the teaching/learning process by both answering and asking quality questions
- Completing all assignments with integrity, following stated directions, and turning them in on time

5

Student has NO work ethic as shown by

NEVER:

- Coming to class prepared
- Actively and purposefully participating in the teaching/learning process by both answering and asking quality questions
- Completing all assignments with integrity, following stated directions, and turning them in on time